FARM FOR SALE NEAR BOSTON,—In the town of West Cambridge, a small farm pleasantly located, near the foot of the rocks, (so called)—the land is in a high state of cultivation, and well stocked with grafted fruit—there is a two-story dwelling-house, barn, &c. Apply to CHAS. McINTIER, No 5 Exchange st. a9

NEW ENGLAND CROWN GLASS.—The New England Crown Glass Company have recently erected a new furnace and are manufacturing an excellent article. Their Crown Glass is thick, pure and of excellent color. Its thickness gives it an advantage over all thin glass, which is liable to crack from contraction in cold weather. Its surface not being polished after being blown, retains its enamel, brilliancy and hardness, and is not liable to the objection which applies to Plate Glass, of being easily and permanently bedimmed by dust.

The New England Crown Glass being purer in color than any other Glass, is preferable for Stores, as it does not tinge the rays of light as they pass through it, and therefore white goods particularly appear to advantage; and it is peculiarly useful for Factories, as some minutes of light may be gained morning and evening, in consequence of the absence of color in this glass. The price of second quality is reduced from the rates heretofore asked.

☞ Those who wish to contract for this Glass are requested to specify NEW ENGLAND CROWN GLASS. As much imposition has been practised by dealers in Glass, by deceptive marks on boxes and other artifices, any purchaser who may apprehend he has been imposed upon is invited by letter or personally to apply to the subscriber for any information he may wish to enable him to detect the deception. Orders sent to the undersigned, at Boston or East Cambridge, or to any at the Company's Selling Agents, will be promptly attended to. Persons wishing the appointment of Selling Agent, can apply to the subscriber by letter or otherwise.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—The subscriber having completed a purchase of the exclusive right of the new and useful improvement in the Cooking Stove called the Improved Premium or Conical, takes this method to caution all persons from infringing upon his right. The stove to which he alludes is probably best known by the name of the CONICAL Stove, and has his name on the front. This stove was introduced into market in its present shape in the Spring of 1835, and about 1500 to 2000 sold. They have generally given great satisfaction, and the subscriber has made such arrangements as will enable him to supply the market the coming season. And as he has been informed that there are persons in the vicinity of Boston, who have already commenced manufacturing them, and others are preparing to make the said stove, he deems it his duty to inform such persons, and the public generally, that prompt measures will be taken to prosecute all such infringements. He also intends having an agency in Boston, where the public can be supplied with said Conical Stove on liberal terms, at wholesale and retail.

POETRY.

THE BRIDE'S SONG.

'Twas a heavenly night,
'Neath the deep star-light,
As pensive I sate by my casement high;
I mused on a youth with a full dark eye,
But think not I cared for him too—
My love—my love—was it you?

Then a minstrel came,
And he breathed my name,
And he sang me a sweet and a plaintive song,
Of one I scorned, though he sought me long,
And never a word was true—
My love—my love—was it you?

But I dreamed me a dream,
'Neath the glad sunbeam,
I was plighted to one till death should part;
And I gave that one my whole, whole heart,
And the gentle dream came true:
My love—my love—it was you!

* * * * * * *

It was a lovely summer's evening, and Reginald was amusing himself, in a shady spot, by throwing pebbles into the rivulet which flowed silently at his feet, when a voice—a light yet melancholy voice—rang upon the silent air. He listened—Eulalie was singing. He raised his eyes, and saw her advancing; the last words of the song were trembling on her lips—they were:

"Mais ne m'oubliez pas!"

Rookley sprang on his feet and darted to her side:—"Eulalie! my bright beautiful Eulalie! I love you!"

The declaration was, like himself impetuous, and made without a moment's reflection. It seemed, however, that Eulalie was not much astonished, for, after the first start, she listened to his rapid avowal with unwearied attention.

"Mais, Monsieur"—she at last interrupted.

"Nay, Eulalie, let me explain; I have loved you from the very first moment I ever saw you!"

"Mais, Monsieur Rookle"—

"Eulalie, will you go to England with me?",

"Allow me to speak," entreated Eulalie, "pray hear me!"

"Eulalie! exclaimed Reginald once more, "I cannot leave De Valmont without you; can you love me?"

"Ah! do not ask me!" cried Eulalie; and with one bound she flew from him, and disappeared.

Rookley went to the Château immediately, and obtained an interview with the Comte de Valmont.

"M. de Valmont," said he unhesitatingly, "pardon me for intruding, but I adore your beautiful Eulalie!"

The Comte raised his eyebrows:—What do I hear, Mr. Rookley?"

"The simple truth, M. de Valmont; to know Eulalie—to live for three happy months under the same roof with her—and not love her, were impossible!"

"You have not spoken to my child, I presume?" asked M. de Valmont, as an unaccountable smile played over his features.

"I have indeed," replied Rookley.

"And what did Eulalie say?"

"She—she—we were—that is to say—she said nothing."

"Ah! c'est bien," smiled the Comte, "then permit me, Monsieur Rookley, whilst I deeply regret the necessity, to decline your proposals, flattering as they are."

"Monsieur de Valmont!"

"Sir Monsieur—believe me I feel for you—I know what my Eulalie would say; perhaps she would have spared you the pain I am giving you, but——"

"Monsieur de Valmont!" interrupted Reginald, imperiously, "pray speak decidedly—I do not understand you."

"Then, my dear young friend, I will tell you the truth:—My little Eulalie has been engaged for nearly a year to my nephew, the Comte de St Géran—you know Auguste!"

Reginald Rookley flung himself out of the room in a fever of mingled rage and indignation. The sight of English letters on his dressing-table roused him from the state into which he had thrown himself. He tore them open. They contained the news of the illness of his father, and an immediate summons to England.

Eulalie was the first person to whom he communicated the tidings. His carriage was ordered at dusk—his valet had everything in readiness.

"For the last time, dearest Eulalie, will you be mine?"

"What will Auguste say?"

"Do you care for him Eulalie?"

"Ah, no! I do not think I like him at all!"

"Then fly with me—all is ready—my mother shall be yours. You can wish me good-bye as Cecile and Albertine will, and then meet me at the gate of the Château?"

"But Auguste—poor Auguste?"

"You do not love him?"

"Ah, true! I do not love him, and you know he can marry Cécile instead—what do you think? can he not?"

"At the Château gate, at ten this night, Eulalie!"

"J'y serais—adieu!"

At ten that evening, Eulalie, in the presence of her family, took a graceful leave of Rookley. At eleven she was in one corner of his caléche, flying towards Paris as quick as four horses could convey them. Once arrived there amongst the number of his friends, Reginald found no difficulty in concealing the fugitive Eulalie. The next morning they were married. The caléche was at the door, the horses waiting, and the Honorable Mr Rookley handing his bride down stairs, when a travelling-carriage dashed into the court-yard—the gentlemen sprang out and the next moment Reginald was standing before the Compte, Claude de Valmont, and Auguste de St Géran!

Eulalie flew away and hid herself.

"Villain!" exclaimed the old Count, "where is my daughter? I demand my child—what have you done with her?"

"Monsieur de Valmont," replied Rookley, "you come to late—Eulalie is my wife!"

"My sister shall be avenged!" cried Claude. "This insult to our family can only be redeemed by your blood!"

"With all my heart," said Rookley; "I am ready."

"And when you have settled with De Valmont, I am at your sevice," muttered Auguste de Géran.

"With the greatest pleasure," answered Rookley, carelessly; and turning away, he raised Eulalie from the ground, on which she was kneeling before her father.

That evening the parties met in the Bois de Boulogne. Reginald was cool and contemptuous—De Valmont firm, but evidently much excited.

The ground was measured—the signal given. They fired, and Reginald instantly fell!

"Grand Dieu!" ejeculated De Valmont, I have killed him!"

A trembling sigh burst from the lips of the dying youth—his eyes partly opened, and with one violent effort he exclaimed, "England! Eulalie!" The next moment he fell back into the arms of St Géran, and the heir of Rookley—had not the least occasion for a wife.

It is more than probable that his widow married again. V——.

BOSTON MORNING POST.

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1836.

The Gold Currency—The Globe estimates that our gold coin will amount to upwards of TWENTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS by the time that President Jackson's administration expires, and states that decisive measures are about to be taken to retain it in the country. The bill for regulating the desposites, and the district Bank bills will present occasions for the action of Congress on this point. The Globe says—

"We understand it is the intention of the friends of the gold currency, to avail themselves of both these occasions, to endeavor to preserve and diffuse the gold currency. For this purpose, among other provisions, we understand that two leading and fundamental principles will be attempted; first, the cessation on the part of the deposite banks and the district banks, to use any paper currency of less denomination than twenty dollars; secondly, the payment of all their currency in gold AND silver, the option being in the demander for one half of either metal, from the 3d day of March next. These are two principles out of several, that we have heard mentioned; and without going more at large into the subject, we repeat that DECISIVE MEASURES are needed, and are contemplated, to save the twenty millions of gold which will be in the country at the end of President Jackson's administration; and that these measures are looked for from the present Congress. With proper legislation at this session of Congress, and the coinage from the three branch mints to commence in January next, a gold currency will be secured to the country; and that splendid measure, instead of being the ridicule of his enemies, will become a monument of glory to Jackson, and a scource of felicity to the Union."

The Young Whigs of Pennsylvania, undertook to get up a Harrison Meeting at Harrisburg on the 20th—but it was no go. The city of Philadelphia and fourteen only out of the fifty two counties, were represented by regular delegates. Some of the youngsters made flaming speeches in favor of a petticoat government, and resolutions were passed approving the course of the recreant democratic Senators who voted for the present Bank. The whole affair was a most mortifying failure for the ambitious demagogues who originated it.

A Harrison paper, recently established in Cincinnati, rejoices in the following doggerel motto:—

"Sound, sound the trump of Fame!
Call Ohio's fav'rite Son;
Beyond all doubt his name
Is WILL. H. HARRISON."

Who doubts that the Bender will be elected, after such a splendid demonstration in his favor?—don't all speak at once.

The Atlas is laboring very hard to prove that our government is the worst one in the world, and the people of the United States the most depraved. Santa Anna it considers a very amiable officer, and his soldiers merciful, in comparison with American citizens! This is whiggery!

The Charleston (S. C.) Mercury publishes the following, which will be interesting news to the Webster whigs here:—

A Harrison Triumph at Boston.—The friends of of Harrison, says the Courier & Enquirer, have achieved a notable triumph in the recent municipal election in that city. The test appears to have been carried on upon strict party considerations. It was Harrison and Van Buren at every ballot box, and, the result was a complete victory over the Vans. The Harrisonians carried thirteen out of the council, and the Van Buren men managed to get only two constables out of ten, and even that poor success is charged by their opponents to have been obtained by foul play at the polls.

Colerain has become quite a manufacturing town. The Greenfield Gazette gives the following interesting sketch of Mr J. Griswold, Jr., one of the most extensive of the Colerain manufacturers:—

"Mr J. Griswold, Jr., is the most extensive of the Colerain manufacturers. We visited his establishment the other day, and must be permitted to say that we never saw a more striking specimen of what business talent, enterprise, energy, and perseverance will accomplish, in the way of money-making, than was there exhibited. Ten years since Mr G. commenced, worth, next to nothing.—He has now a very pretty village of his own in possession. Yonder is a little black looking old shop, where gimblets and lather boxes are manufactured; here, is a moderate sized cotton factory in full operation; there is a very large brick one, 100 feet long, and four stories high, about to go into operation; beyond is a row of handsome brick and wood dwelling houses, for the accommodation of the workmen. The old black shop, first mentioned, is the father of all these fair structures. The industry and enterprize first exerted there met with its legitimate reward, and enabled the proprietor to extend his business to what we have described. Mr G's new factory alone, will furnish employment for upwards of three hundred laborers, men and girls."

Beat This.—Three ladies from one neighborhood, in Montpelier, Vt., casually happening in at a store in that village, one day last week, just stepped into the scales to see how light they were. Their aggregate weight was 600 lbs—so says the Vermont Patriot.

Bernardo de Soto, it appears by a letter from Havana, published in the Commercial Gazette, is commander of a steamboat that runs between that place and Matanzas.

The Philadelphia correspondent of the Boston Transcript, has the following under date of May 17th:—

"Philadelphia, always a beautiful city, was never so beautiful as now. I bless the memory of Penn anew as I sit in the shade of these delicious squares, or walk even under the young trees which chequer the broad pavements of Chesnut street."

Tilburina saw what was not to be seen, but this gentleman enacts more wonders than the Governor's Daughter, and sits down when there are no seats, and when pressing the grass is a punishable offence. If not indulging in a flight of fancy, he must be the rotund sitter on the fireplug, of whom we spoke not long since—there are no other seats yet in the Washington square. —Pennsylvanian.

A correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, speaking of the climate of Italy in the winter, says—

"The delusion with which so many are crowding to Italy to save their lives, should be speedily removed from the minds of our countrymen; especially as they have another and a better alternative—let them go to the Southern States, or to Florida, where they may enjoy a higher and more equable temperature, and where they may enjoy the comforts to which they are accustomed, and which disease has rendered indispensable."

SANTA ANNA'S CAPTURE STILL FURTHER CONFIRMED.

The surprising news of the capture of Santa Anna and the destruction or capture of his whole division of 1100 men by a force of 700 or 800 Texians under Gen. Houston, is so well authenticated, through so many different channels, that it would idle any longer to doubt it. In the extracts below, it is confirmed, first, by an arrival at New Orleans from Galveston Bay (Texas;) 2dly, by persons arrived at Mobile, who were actually in the engagement; and thirdly by a letter from Houston himself, received in Nachitoches, to say nothing of other letters and messengers bearing the same intelligence.—Jour. Com.

The Louisiana Advertiser of the 11th announces the arrival there of the schooner Flash, from Galveston Bay, having on board several passengers who were in the glorious battle of the 21st of April. She also brought various letters for the Texian agents in New Orleans and for private individuals, all of which fully corroborate the previous accounts of the capture of Santa Anna, and of Houston's unparalleled victory.

When the Flash sailed, Santa Anna was under the charge of Captain Hawkins, of the Texian schooner of war Independence, then in Galveston Bay, and the prisoners of his army were employed in building Fort Travis, on Galveston Island.

The accounts by the Flash, state that General Houston had had great difficulty in restraining his troops from proceeding summarily with Santa Anna, as the Texians made their attack under the watchwords of "Alamo and Fanning."

A Mobile paper of the 12th, states that several persons who were in the battle of the 21st, were then in that city, and they all confirmed the previous accounts.

The Advertiser of the 11th, gives a particular account of the interview between Houston and Santa Anna.—Houston asked him why he had put the survivors of the Alamo to death. He replied that his troops were so exasperated at the number of their killed and wounded, that he could not restrain them. He was then asked why Fanning's command were slaughtered. His answer was, there were so many prisoners it was impossible either to keep them or to feed them. He also asserted that Col. Fanning and Dr. Shackleford still remained prisoners at Victoria.

A letter published in the Natchez Courier of the 9th, under date of Natchitoches, May 2, states that an express had arrived from Houston's army, and that General Houston in a letter to a friend in Natchitoches, states that "Santa Anna and all his principal officers are our prisoners."

New Orleans, May 12.—We are authorised to state, that by order of the Texian Government, their agents in this city have paid to the owners of the brig Pocket the value of the vessel, her freight, passage money, and demurage; the unsettled state of the country not permitting an adjudication in the case; and that the Texian Navy will not hereafter interfere in any manner with the United States flag.

"Wood" thoroughly cut up: or John Bull taken by the horns.—The New York Courier and Enquirer of Friday devotes one of its long and broad columns to a controversy with Wood, the singer, and, as its wont in such cases, belabors him without mercy. It appears that in consequence of a paragraph in the Courier and Enquirer, in relation to Mr. Wood's conduct towards Mrs. Conduit, Mr. W. was hissed on his benefit night, and upon obtaining a hearing, said to the audience that the statements in question were unfounded—that in consequence of their publication he had waited upon Webb, who promised to investigate the matter—and that after he had made the investigation, instead of retracting the charges, he repeated them in his paper the next morning in a still more aggravated form—that he then sent a "friend" to Webb, who not only refused to retract, but also to grant the "satisfaction due from one gentleman to another." When Wood had eased his mind, Mr. Simpson was called for, and made some explanations in relation to the origin of the difficulty between the high contending parties. After Mr. Simpson, came Mrs. Conduit, who stated that immediately after the Woods arrived in the city, her husband sent a polite note requesting them to play for her benefit, on their own terms, of which no notice was taken—but that she felt kindly towards them, and in proof of it was willing to shake hands and be friends. Mr. W. was willing to accede to these terms, (as it did'nt cost anything) and went through the ceremony with infinite grace; not so Mrs. W., who declined the honor, until the pursuasive calls of the audience became too urgent to be longer disregarded. Here Joseph thought his troubles would end—but it was not so to be. A gentleman in the pit had the astonishing impudence to make a remark touching the merits of the case, when "Mr. Wood, gentleman," as Webb calls him, pompously walked up to the foot lights, and enquired—"What do you say, sir? Why dont you speak out? Dont be afraid" (!) This produced another row, and Wood came forward to extemporize for a third time. Among other things, he said he "cared nothing about what the newspapers said, [how bad the "bugs" must feel] but was anxious to be tried by the public, in the theatre, &c. &c. The performances then proceeded, and went off with an occasional hiss.

Webb winds up his article by calling upon the thousands who disapprove of Wood's course to go to the theatre and hiss "the vagabond" off the stage—and councils the manager and the police how they interfere. It is he says, no more a breach of the peace to hiss, than to applaud—and for his part, he is determined to be on the ground, and practice a little at the former. This battle, it seems to us, is a good deal like that between the skunk and the rattle snake, when the countryman "did'nt care a d——n which lick'd."

☞ The New York papers of Saturday furnish us with an account of the result of the quarrel. Mr. Wood was assailed on Friday night with hisses and missiles—and finally driven from the stage. The crowd from without broke in the doors of the theatre, and refused to leave until the manager pledged his word that the Woods should never again be advertised to appear in that house, and that justice should be done to Mrs. Conduit. The Mayor was present during a part of the evening, but could not restore order. Mrs. Wood was received with deafening ap, lause. The rioters obtained possession of the whole house—a beam of wood was hurled at the head of Mr. Wood—Mrs. W. being at his side—which was caught by Mr. Placide. In fine, to speak in theatrical parlance, Wood was thoroughly "damned," and will not, probably, again appear in this country. The whole affair, however, is disgraceful to all the parties concerned.

The Mails.—All attempts to keep up the mail communication between Columbus, (Ga.) and Montgomery (Ala.) have been abandoned for the present. The mails which have fallen into the hands of the Indians, are believed to be the New Orleans mails of the 10th, 11th, and possibly the mail of the 7th instant, which is also missing, together with the Mobile mails of the succeeding days.

The Legislature of New York has voted a sword to Capt. Daniel Turner, of the U. S. Navy, for his bravery as commander of the Caledonia, in the battle of Lake Erie.

The Legislature of New York adjourned on Thursday, after a session of 143 days, during which they have passed 536 acts.

VERY LATE FROM EUROPE.

By the packet ships Erie, Capt. Funk, and Napoleon, Capt. Smith, French papers to April 26th, and London and Liverpool to the 30th, have been received at New York.

The Gazette de France states, the French Government has come to a final resolution on the question of intervention so pressingly urged by the English Cabinet and by the Ambassador of Queen Christina. The furloughs which were to be granted to the French army in August next will be immediately issued, together with a permission to the officers and men to enter into the Algerine legion.

A letter from St. Petersburg reports the following speech of the Emperor Nicholas:—

"'England will intervene in Spain. We shall imitate it by intervening in Turkey. If it attacks our principles, we attack its commerce. It could not remain in the Peninsula. As for us, if we once entered Constantinople, we should remain there.'"

England is, however about to intervene, and it only remains to be seen what course Russia will adopt.

By a second edition of the Times, published late this morning, announcing the receipt of private correspondence from London, to the date of the 15th inst. we learn that the administration of M. Campos had been entirely broken up, but that a new one had not been formed.

The Bridegroom Prince landed on the 8th, and his reception at the Palace immediately afterwards was, it is said, most satisfactory. The ratification of the marriage took place on the 9th, with every demonstration of joy.

The convention between Russia and Turkey, has been settled. Turkey is to pay Russia 80,000 Turkish piastres by the latter end of August, and Russia on her part is to evacuate Silestria.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

LIVERPOOL, April 26th, 1836.—We had a moderate demand for Cotton for a day or two subsequently to the date of our last circular, 15th inst, at steady rates, but for a week past the market has been excessively dull, and prices have declined ⅛d pr lb. the greatest depression being in the low and middle qualities, which must now be considered about ⅜d. below the highest point of the market at the close of last month, while good and fine qualities are about ⅛d. pr lb. lower.

Friday Evening, April 27th.—The sales of this week are 9,070 bags with a decline in prices of ⅛d pr. lb. Import 18,578 bales, 400 American and 100 Surat have been taken on speculation.

P. S. 29th.—Two o'clock.—Since Tuesday our Market has been in a very dull state, and the sales do not average more than 1200 bags daily. To-day, however, there has been an improved demand from the trade, but holders not offering their stocks so freely or so low as buyers expected, the sales will be very limited. The imports for the week are, 16,000 bales.

Col. Freeman left the city yesterday with all the Marines stationed at Charlestown, except a sergeant's guard, to Fort Mitchell. Lieutenants Caldwell and Mc Ardle are of this detachment. The whole military force stationed at Fort Independence, is ordered to Fort Mitchell, in Alabama, and will leave here this morning in the railroad cars for Providence. This command consists of two companies, F and K, of the second regiment of infantry. The officers are Major G. Dearborn, Major T. Staniford, Lieut. G. W. Patten, and Lieut. H. W. Wessells. Orders have been received at Fort Preble, Portland, to proceed with all possible despatch to Fort Columbus, and from thence to Fort Mitchell. Major McClintock and Capt. Vinton are of this command.

The Steamboat Mail seems to be considered of very little importance by the man who manages business at the depot of the Providence Railroad. Yesterday, passengers were delivered in the city three quarters of an hour before the mail was deposited at the Post Office—and when it did arrive, it was in a baggage wagon which had been about the city with trunks, and which dashed up to the Post Office at the rate of a mile an hour!

The democratic members of the New York Legislature held a meeting in Albany on the 24th inst., and passed resolutions strongly approbating the nominations of the Baltimore Convention, and expressing the exalted opinion entertained by them of the civil and military services of Gen. Jackson. The same meeting recommended a State Convention to be held in Syracuse on the 14th of September next—passed a just encomium on the services of Gov. Marcy—and nominated William Baker, of Otsego, for the office of Canal Commissioner.

The Atlas, in noticing our remarks, says that a portion of the "Administration Press devotes its time to the daily drudgery of explaining nonsense," &c., &c. We are obliged to confess that there is some truth in this; the allusion undoubtedly being to our occasional attempt to "explain" the editorials of the Atlas about the currency—the money pressure—the government deposites, &c.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith take their farewell benefit at the Tremont this evening. The bill of entertainment embraces great variety and interest, and the beneficiaries are among the most popular members of the company. Under such circumstances one less than a Prophet might venture to predict a full house.

The Washington Globe of Friday contains a letter from the Postmaster at Columbus, Geo. dated the 18th inst. which confirms the accounts received of the murder of four of the passengers in the mail, among whom was Mr Hallett, of New York.

The sale of Maria Monk's first book having ceased, and the prospect for the disposal of her second one being rather dull, she and her friends have gotten up an abduction story to help it off.

The Hon Andrew Stevenson and family arrived in New York on Thursday, and will embark on the 1st proximo for London.

A splendid copy of the Revised statutes has been presented to the Mayor of the city, by the publishers, Messrs. Dutton & Wentworth.

The cars upon the Norristown rail road have been running against each other, but did no serious injury to the passengers.

The people of Buffalo threaten to build a hotel in that city which will make the Astor House look small.

A Concert by Miss Mallet and Mrs Leman was given at Bangor on Thursday evening last.

Latest from the Indians.—A postscript to the Columbus [Georgia] Herald, of May 17th, says—"We have just received information of a second party of Creek Indians, 400 in number, making a second attack upon Roanoke, in which 9 persons were killed, among them Uriah Horne, Solicitor for Chattahoochee District. There are fifteen persons missing, besides many negroes."

It is stated that the Seminoles are killing all their young children, as well their own as those of their negroes, so that there may be no lets, or incumbrances, to impede or retard them in their war-path. This statement is in keeping with the Indian spirit, and manifests a settled purpose of desperate resistance.

The extensive building belonging to Mr C. C. Damon, in Concord, and known as the "factory boarding house," was totally destroyed by fire a few nights since. Loss $4000—insured for $1500 in Boston.—Several of the tenants, females, lost considerable by this calamity.

Marine Corps.—We understand that Colonel Henderson, and the officers under his command, patriotically requested to be employed in active service against the Indians, and that it is in consequence of this application that the marines are to be sent to Alabama.

The Packet ship Independence which sailed from New York on the 8th, arrived in Liverpool in a passage of fourteen days and eighteen hours!

POLICE COURT.

A Happy Squad.—Charles Stewart, John Boylen, Michael Mullenn, and Bridget Mullenn, were brought up on one warrant, by an officer, upon a charge of being common drunkards, and dangerous and disorderly persons—to all which they severally, seriously and solemnly pleaded not guilty.

Witness—They all live in the upper part of a house in Poplar street. The man that occupied the premises before, took all this truck in, and took rent out of them. They are part of the set who were burnt out by Crocket last year. They come home drunk as long as they can get the liquor, and will beg for a fourpence to buy it with, and whenever they get drunk they fight, and keep the whole neighborhood in a state of consternation all night long, by their cries of murder. The neighbors are afraid they will set the place on fire. The other day Stewart came to me for a fourpence; but as he has a good gift of cant-slang, I told him to go and preach, if he was too idle to work. He can make a capital prayer—equal to a clergyman. He even carries round a child, to induce people to give him something on its account. On Saturday morning, right early, long before breakfast, I caught a boy going into their yard with a decanter of the real white new rum; and as I had a new cane, I tried the strength of it on the decanter, and the way the liquor flew round was melancholly.

Stewart—I sent for the rum to wash my sore feet; and when I asked Mr Riley why he broke my decanter, he said he was sorry that it was not my head, and that was all the satisfaction I could get from him. I never got the worse for liquor in my life.

2d Witness—He is always full of steam; but such people dont consider themselves the worse for liquor, if they can scrabble out of a mud puddle, if they happen to stagger into one.

3d and 4th Witness—testified, that on Saturday night, upon the cry of murder, they entered the rooms occupied by the squad. The woman was laying on the floor, weltering in her blood, which was flowing from a wound in her forhead. The only furniture in the room was a hatchet and a rum-jug. Mullenn, her husband, was coiled up under a pile of shavings. She said he had struck her with an axe, and he admitted it. In consequence of their continued disturbances, it was agreed to assemblo a posse of constables, and secure as many as possible at their next out break. At the next essay, Mrs Mullen was the aggressor, and broke open a door to get at her husband. The investigation was now interrupted by Boylen.—May it please you, my Lord, I'm sartin sure I was not drunk, but had only taken two glasses on an empty stomach, in the afternoon. So when night came they took and seized me with the rest, when I was quietly taking my tea.

Officer.—We did not get Boylen the first hitch—his wife had hid him away; but when we went back I poked my cane under an old bed, and felt of him—In moving my cane round I upset a jug of rum, and a tea cup, and that's the tea he talks of.

Mullen frankly owned, that he had nothing to say, and the whole batch were sentenced for six months.

CONGRESS.

Wednesday, May 25.—The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Treasury Department, in reply to a call from Mr Ewing of Ohio, requiring from the Department a statement of the transfers to and from certain banks in Ohio; which was ordered to be printed.

The fortification bill was taken up—an amendment appropriating $75,000 for two years for fortifications at Salem was negatived. The amendments for prospective appropriations were all rejected, several others adopted, and the bill ordered to be engrossed and read a third time.

The bill to extend the charter of the District Banks, was taken up, and the reported amendments to the same agreed to, and the bill made the order of the day for Friday.

The bill for the admission of Arkansas was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time, the blank in the same having been filled with "the first day of July."

House.—Tuesday's session was prolonged to half past twelve o'clock at night. The amendment to the fortification appropriation bill to add $700,000 for arming the fortifications, &c., was finally adopted in Committee and reported to the House.

Wednesday, the House was engaged up to 1 o'clock upon Mr Pinckney's Report on Slavery, without taking any decisive vote upon its destination, although the previous question was moved—numerous points of order were raised, and the debate was of an acrimonious character, in which Mr Adams was particularly conspicuous.

The resolution from the Senate, to authorize the President to furnish rations to certain inhabitants of Alabama, was amended by inserting "Georgia" after Alabama, and finally passed without a count, after a long debate upon the constitutionality of such appropriations.

Thursday, May 26.—In the Senate, Mr Crittenden presented memorials relative to the recognition of Texas, which were referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

An act making appropriations for the purchase of materials, the erection of fortifications, the purchase of sites, &c., was read a third time and passed.

In the House, Mr Pinckney's report was taken up, and the resolutions accompanying it adopted, as follows:—

"Resolved, That Congress possesses no constitutional authority to interfere, in any way, with the institution of slavery in any of the States of this confederacy.

"Resolved, That Congress ought not to interfere, in any way, with slavery in the District of Columbia.

"And whereas it is extremely important and desirable that the agitation on this subject should be finally arrested for the purpose of restoring tranquility to the public mind, your committee respectfully recommend the adoption of the following additional resolution, viz.:

"Resolved, That all petitions, memorials, resolutions, and propositions, or papers relating in any way, or to any extent whatever, to the subject of slavery shall, without being either printed or referred, be laid on the table, and that no further action whatever shall be had thereon."

The remainder of the sitting was occupied in the consideration of the bill to change the organization of the Post Office Department, and the bill was made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock, and the House adjourned.

From the Washington Globe.

Official—French Indemnity.—The Agent of the United States in Paris, having received from the Government of France the sum of frs. 18,486,666 52, on account of the indemnity of 25 millions of Francs, under the treaty of July 1831, the amount of which is now in the course of transmission to this country, the claimants holding certificates from the Treasury department are hereby notified that the Bank of America, in behalf of the United States, and by authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, will advance and pay, on the 15th June next, a proportional part of their respective certificates, equal to at least the ratio of 50 cts. on the dollar of the above-mentioned sum received by the Agent in Paris, together with the same ratio of the sum there deducted, and to be repaid here out of the Treasury of the United States, being frs. 1,180,000. The said certificates must be presented to the Bank for that purpose, by the parties to whom they shall have been issued, or by their legal assignees, or duly constituted Attorneys.

The residue of what has been received in Paris, and of the sum deducted there, will be paid out here, soon as the former arrives, and the nett proceeds of the whole can be ascertained.

Treasury Department, May 25, 1836.

☞ A hearty, handsome, lusty and squalling male infant, apparently less than a week old, neatly and rather prettily clad, was discovered yesterday in an avenue leading from Beacon street, in the rear of a house on Charles street. It was taken in charge by an overseer of the poor, and we learn the parentage has been traced with probable accuracy.—Trans.

EXPERIENCE versus THEORY.

DR. W. EVANS' CAMOMILE PILLS, having long acquired an exalted reputation in private practice by an invariable efficacy which could only have resulted from their exalted worth, he is confident that he has only to get them extensively known to render that reputation universal. Unlike the clamorous host of quack medicines with which the columns of the public press are crowded, these Camomile Pills, have the testimony of the whole medical profession in their favor, and not a single case of ill consequences or inefficacy to be alledged against them. Their very name candidly acknowledges what they are composed of—and they honestly promise no more than they faithfully perform. They are composed of a beautiful extract of the Camomile flowers, in which all the tonic and restorative principles of that inestimable plant is preserved; and its irritating principle is neutralised by an alkeline infusion—they, therefore, necessarily afford immediate relief, in all cases of dyspepsia, or other derangements of the digestive organs. In sick headaches, nervous debility spasmodic affections, prostration of muscular and vital energy, and consequent loss of ease, comfort, and ultimately of life itself they restore health in the most impaired and hopeless constitutions, not by being taken in excessive quantities, for the necessity of their use continually decreases, as of course it ought to do, if they are good for anything—by their direct adaptation to the powers of the human stomach. There is one disease, however, which is unhappily but too prevalent, in which their ability will perhaps become pre-eminent, and that is in the disease which is produced by violent drastic purges, taken in pernicious quantities, and which may be termed the "Quack Mortem" disease. The excessive debility, both of body and mind, produced by this destructive practice, can only be relieved by a tonic, and such as the Camomile preparation contains. Dr W. Evans supplies an antidote for a host of public poisons, and a remedy for all those diseases which he professes to cure. A single trial will prove the vast superiority of a course of practice which is based upon science, experience, common sense and honesty.

TO THE LADIES.—Amongst thousands of ladies benefitted by Dr W Evans' Camomile Pills, Mrs M. Beaumont (corner of Canal and Washington streets) has kindly allowed it to be made known for the benefit of others, that she was brought (by mental affliction) to a very weak and bad state of health, with pains in the side and head, was recommended to take Dr. W. Evans' Camomile Pills, which she has done to her comfort of mind and restoration of health. MRS. M. BEAUMONT.

TO THE AFFLICTED.—For the benefit of the public, and in gratitude to Dr W. Evans, I consider it a duty I owe, to make known the great good I have derived from EVANS' CAMOMILE PILLS. Having been five years afflicted with dyspepsia of the worst kind, I made application to numerous sources without benefit, but by the use of three bottles of Evans' Camomile Pills, and three boxes of Evans's Aperient Pills, I have found signal relief, fully to my satisfaction, and I am more healthy than I have been for many years. The symptoms (which were pains in the chest, weaknesses in the whole frame, heart-burn, flatulency, acidity, and headache) are all removed. I deliver this testimony over to Dr Evans, for his and the public benefit, for it to be made known. I hereby sign my name and address.

EDWARD RHODES, 95 Crosby street, N. Y.

A great many persons have been benefited and curedof different complaints: such as Dyspepsia, Consumption, Billious and Liver complaints, Headache, Weakness, Female Complaints, Nervous Diseases, Spasms, and others of all those Complaints for which the Pills are so efficacious.

Dr W. Evans' Office where both his Camomile and Aperient Family Pills can be obtained, is at 95 Division street, New York.

DR. PHELPS' ARCANUM.—This Syrup is celebrated for the Cure of Scrofula, Eruptions or Disease of the skin, Syphilis or Venereal Complaints, Rheumatisms Ulcers in the Throat and other parts of the Body, Mercuria, Affections, Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Blood, Deepl seated pains in the Muscles, Bones, &c. and a regenerator o-emaciated and broken Constitutions, caused by disease, intem perance, &c.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Having been made acquainted with the medical qualities and witnessed the effects of "Dr Phelps' Arcanum," I feel much confidence in saying it is a preparation of medicine greatly superior to any thing of the kind, in curing those chronic diseases for which it is intended, and recommend it to invalids in preference to any other article whatever.

SAMUEL L. MITCHELL, M. D.

New York, March 25, 1830.

My knowledge of the properties and operation of the "Arcanum of Dr Phelps," justify me in saying that it is far superior o any depurative syrup with which I am acquainted. In the most obstinate and ambiguous deseases, it displays effects peculiarly surprising. In those affections that resist the skill of the physician, such as Rheumatism, Syphilis, Scrofula, Ulcerations, and Diseases of the Skin, &c., I would recommend it as worthy of great confidence. JOHN D. GODMAN, M. D.

Philadelphia. Nov. 27, 1829.

For the last few years I have suffered excessively by a Billious Mercurial Disease, which has rendered me frequently unfit for duty, and confined me as often to my berth. My diease was the sequela of bad treatment, while in the more tropical latitudes, and laboring under an acute inflamation of the liver, and other Billiary organs. Prior and pubsequently to our arrival in this port, I have had recourse to a great variety of prescriptions, medicines and nostrums—among which, were a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Potter's Catholicon, the Rob of Laffecteur, &c., but without any benefit.—Dr Phelps being at that time a student of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, advised me to make use of a newly discovered medicine, the Arcanum, which he believed would suceed in relieving me, in consequence of the very signal effects himself and others had observed in its operation in various glandular diseases, that were otherwise considered incurable. I commenced its use accordingly, and it affords me pleasure to state, that for several months past, not a vestige of the original or secondary disease has been discoverable. I prize the medicine above all others with which I have ever been acquainted. It is both pleasant and I believe certain it its effects, as a remidy in a variety of chronic diseases, incident to tropical and other climates. J. ANDREWS, Purser of the Columbian Brig Pinchinca. Philadelphia, Jan. 5, 1835.

SAVANNAH, 6th March, 1831.

GENT.—I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude to you in offering me a bottle of Dr PHELPS' ARCANUM, as an experiment in my case of Rheumatism. I have been dreadfully afflicted for upwards of twelve months, and for the last four or five months have scarcely been able to walk. I have used a dozen bottles of Swaim's Panacea, and found very little benefit from it. After taking the bottle of Arcanum, I found such a change in my whole system, that I was induced to try another, and to my surprise, the pains in my legs all disappeared, and the Ulcers in one have completely healed up, and I can walk nearly as well as ever. I shall continue to take two bottles more, and firmly believe it will make a complete cure of my disease. I remain, gentlemen, yours very respectfully,

JNO. MORRALL

Messrs Lay & Hendrickson, Druggists, Savannah, (Geo.)

Extract of a letter from Dr Jones, a highly respectable physician, dated Baton Rogue, Louisiana, Dec. 28, 1833.—The Arcanum had two powerful competitors, Swaim's Panacea, and Potter's Catholicon, which have been for years in circulation in this place. As far as I have had an opportunity of ascertaining its virtues, I believe the Arcanum to be superior to any article of the kind, yet offered to the public. I prescribed it in a case of Irritable Ulcer of three years standing, situated on the Malleolus Extrenus—the individual thus afflicted was much emaciated and debilitated,—after one week's attendance, I put him upon the Arcanum, following the directions three bottles nearly effected a cure of the ulcer and bodily health.

I prescribed it in several Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, where it proved salutary. I am at this time trying the Arcanum on an individual, who has been laboring under Ulcerous affections of one of his legs, for fifteen years,—he has taken 1 bottle only, and it has produced that effect, he is sanguine in the belief, it will effect a permanent cure.

Consumption!

DR. RELFE'S ASTHMATIC PILLS,

HAVE, from their extraordinary success in giving instant relief, and in curing Colds, Coughs, Asthmas, Difficulty of Breathing, Wheezing, Tightness of the Chest, Pain in the Side, Spitting of Blood, Chillness and Shiverings that precede Fevers and Lung Complaints generally! become one of the most popular Medicines known, and are sought after from every part of the country, on account of the astonishing success which has attended their administration in the above complaints, frequently curing the most obstinate cases, and giving the most unexpected relief, after every other remedy had failed, and persons had given themselves up in despair of a cure!

They have been known to cure persons supposed to be far gone in consumption, and exhibiting all the appearance of approaching dissolution.

And such have been the salutary effects of these Pills even in hopeless cases, as so far to mitigate the sufferings of the patient, as evidently to prolong life for days and weeks, and give to it, a positive comfort they never expected to enjoy.

The operation of the pills is wonderful in easing respiration, quieting the cough, and procuring comfortable rest.

Common colds are frequently removed in a few hours.

☞"Although, (says a person speaking of these Pills,) my wife has tried various medicines of the first celebrity, for an Asthmatic difficulty, (or affection of the lungs,) which at times was exceedingly distressing, confining her to her house for days and weeks together, she finds nothing gives her the relief which Relfe's Asthmatic Pills do!—easing her respiration quieting her cough, and iving her comfortable rest." And, this is the testimony of hundreds or thousands. The relief which aged people, as well as others, experience from the use of these Pills, is truly astonishing, and renders them invaluable to many, and are in fact to some, an essential auxiliary to their comfort, and almost to their existence!

A Physician informs the Proprietor, that a gentleman in the country observed to him, he had reason to believe the use of these Pills had been the means of saving his life.

Price—whole boxes, 30 pills, $1: half do 12 pills, 50 cts.

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints, weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pain over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain attended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr. No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston, Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury.

THE SUBSCRIBER at No 8 Milk street, 4th from the Old South, continues to dress or purify feathers with Reynolds' Patent Machine. It is said that old beds that have been thoroughly dressed in the above named machine, are better than new that have not been dressed. Rights to use the Machine in the counties of Suffolk, Norfolk, Middlesex and Essex, are for sale by the subscriber.

JACOB SMITH.

Boston, May 2, 1836.

About six months since I examined Mr Smith's Machine for purifying feathers, and being satisfied that it must produce the effect for which it was intended, I sent a bed to be purified, which had been dried and aired in the ordinary way, by an upholsterer, four times in four successive years, without any lasting effect. The process of Mr Smith's machine upon this bed has proved completely effectual. The bed continues to be in perfect order, and the bulk of the feathers is permanently increased 25 per cent. F. EMERSON.

CAUTION.—Notice is hereby given, that the patent granted to me for cleansing and dressing feathers, dated February 7, 1834, has been renewed with a more correct specification according to the act of Congress in such case made and provided—and that this renewed patent is dated October 17th, 1835, and has been submitted to the examination of learned counsel who have pronounced it to be valid, and the invention well secured to the patentee. Now, therefore, this is to caution all persons against using without my license and consent, my invention, or any of the different modifications of it, with which some portions of the community have been deceived by designing men who preter pilfering to an honest livelihood, as I am determined to prosecute all infringements on my right, to the full extent and utmost rigor of the law.

ADAMS'S PATENT

THE subscriber has on hand a good assortment of the Swelled Beam Windlass Bedsteads, which, for comfort and convenience is undoubtedly the best article yet invented; its chief peculiarity is that of the Swelled Beam, the effect of which is to produce a crowning, and elastic sacking, and effectually provides against its saging. They are easily set up or taken down, and may be saved in case of fire as easily as any other piece of furniture, and from its mode of construction less liable to harbor insects than any other kind; but above all its advantages is the ease and comfort obtained from the sacking, by means of its being made and kept elastic by means of the Swelled Beam, (the form of which is exhibited in the above cut.)

Orders thankfully received, and promptly attended to

NOTICE TO GEOLOGISTS AND MINERALOGISTS, or to any other Parties who may be disposed to explore the Minerals and other Treasures in the vicinity of MOOSE HEAD LAKE.

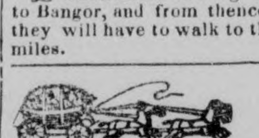

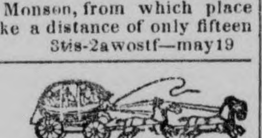

The Steamer MOOSE HEAD, of 130 tons burthen, with a cabin on deck to accommodate a party of 30 or 40 gentlemen, will devote two months only to parties of the above description, commencing on the 4th of July. The boat will run only on the Lake, and as a summer retreat for a few weeks, and for grandeur of scenery, perhaps no place in America will surpass it. The Lake is over 40 miles in length, and from 3 to 25 miles wide, studded with islands, and stored with ducks, geese, and large salmon trout, which are caught in great abundance Tickets for a week's or month's excursion may be had of ASHUR ADAMS, at Briggs's Reading Room, Boston, or at the Bar of the Bangor House, in Bangor, or by application to

JAS. H. GOWER, Agent of the Lake.

P. S.—It is much to be regretted that the Ladies cannot be invited to visit the Lake with their friends, owing to the bad state of the road for the last 15 miles to the Lake. In another year it is expected that a good carriage road will be opened to the Lake, and first rate accommodations on the lake.

☞Gentlemen visiting the Lake this season will first go to Bangor, and from thence to Monson, from which place they will have to walk to the Lake a distance of only fifteen miles. 3tis-2awostf—may19

THE PATENT FRICTIONLESS PUMPS.—We wish to call the attention of the public generally to the valuable improvement lately made in pumps by Mr Whitfield, of 106 William street, New York, whose "Patent Frictionless Pumps" have been exhibited in operation for several days past. This is a very important invention, and it is the opinion of all the engineers in New York, as well as scientific men, that these pumps will supersede the use of every other pump, and for all purposes. They are well worthy the attention of ship owners, corporations, insurance companies, manufacturers, distillers, miners, bridge builders, as well as pump makers, and all persons to whom a good pump and a saving of expense and labor are of any importance. It is the intention of the patentee to dispose of exclusive rights for the different States—or he will dispose of the whole patent right.

MEMORANDA.—We, the undersigned, having practically examined the action of Mr Whitfield's Patent Frictionless Pump, for the purpose of critically approving its powers as a hydraulic machine, to raise water without leakage or friction, there being only the weight of the fluid to lift, do not hesitate to express our unqualified approbation of the invention in all its parts, and we are of opinion that the application of the principle of the patent frictionless pumps throughout the navy and mercantile service, must prove the happy medium of preserving the lives of numberless brave sailors, our fellow countrymen, while at the same time it will ever be of the best practical value and importance in diminishing the burthen of the public service.
